

Cancer Liaison Physician Outstanding Performance Award

Please join the Commission on Cancer in congratulating the Cancer Liaison Physicians who were awarded the 2010 Cancer Liaison Physician Outstanding Performance Award. The Cancer Liaison Physician Outstanding Performance Award is given to individuals who go above and beyond the scope of normal duties of serving as a liaison between their cancer program and the American College of Surgeons Commission on Cancer (CoC) in addition to excellence in the following area(s):

- Improving quality of care delivered at a CoC-approved facility
- Contributing to the accredited status of their cancer program
- Exceeding CLP expectations to strengthen their cancer program
- Exhibiting cancer control leadership in the community

Alexandra Reichman, MD, Rideout Memorial Hospital, Marysville, CA
Christine Teal, MD, George Washington University Hospital, Washington, DC
Sheryl Gabram, MD, FACS, Grady Memorial Hospital, Atlanta, GA
Arnold Conforti, MD, FACS, Medical Center of Central Georgia, Macon, GA
Michael Rotkis, MD, FACS, Saint Joseph Regional Medical Center, Mishawaka, IN
Leo T. McCallum, MD, FACS, Metrowest Medical Center, Framingham, MA
Mary Jane Houlihan, MD, Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center, Boston, MA
Holly Mason, MD, FACS, Baystate Medical Center, Springfield, MA
Scott Steinmetz, MD, FACS, Upper Chesapeake Medical Center, Bel Air, MD
George Hnatiuk, MD, Oakwood Hospital & Medical Center-Dearborn, Dearborn, MI
Carlo Porcaro, MD, Saint Michael's Medical Center, Bloomfield, NJ
Kenneth Graffeo, MD, FACS, Grady Memorial Hospital, Delaware, OH
Graca M. Dores, MD, MPH, VA Medical Center, Oklahoma City, OK
Bradley Kramer, MD, Sky Lakes Medical Center, Klamath Falls, OR
Gregory Engel, MD, FACS, UPMC Hamot, Erie, PA
Stephen Dick, MD, MPH, Avera Queen of Peace, Mitchell, SD
Lee Moore, MD, Cookeville Regional Medical Center, Cookeville, TN
Michael Peyser, MD, Riverside Regional Medical Center, Newport News, VA
David R. Byrd, MD, FACS, Seattle Cancer Care Alliance, Seattle WA