
Call for nominations for ACS Officers-Elect

The 2010 Nominating Committee of the Fellows has the task of selecting nominees for the three Officer-Elect positions of the American College of Surgeons: President-Elect, First Vice-President-Elect, and Second Vice-President-Elect. The following guidelines are used by the Nominating Committee when reviewing the names of potential candidates for nomination as Officers of the College.

- Loyal members of the College who have demonstrated outstanding integrity and medical statesmanship along with an unquestioned devotion to the highest principles of surgical practice

- Demonstrated leadership qualities that might be reflected by service and active participation on ACS committees or in other components of the College

- Recognition of the importance of their representing all who practice surgery

The College encourages consideration of women and other underrepresented minorities.

Nominations should include a paragraph or two on the potential contributions each candidate can offer in terms of what he or she can do for the members of the College. Submit nominations to memberservices@facs.org by Friday, February 26.

If you have any questions, please contact Patricia Sprecksel, Staff Liaison for the Nominating Committee of the Fellows at psprecksel@facs.org.
