OREGON CHAPTER WINTER COUNCIL MEETING

President’s Report

Ronald Jaecks, MD FACS
The Purpose of the Oregon Chapter:

1: To uphold the mission of the American College of Surgeons: “dedicated to improving the care of the surgical patient and to safeguarding standards of care in an optimal and ethical practice environment.”

2: To provide opportunities for mentoring between surgeons and surgical residents.

3: To foster fellowship among the surgeons of Oregon.
4: To enhance the educational opportunities of members with an annual interactive scientific forum of original basic and clinical research and visiting surgical experts.

5: To uphold the highest standards of patient care. When appropriate the chapter will cooperate with other local and state medical societies and worthy civic groups to achieve this aim.

6: To promote dialogue and help frame discussion for unresolved and/or controversial clinical and socio-economic issues confronting our membership.
