Why have a YFA Member on the Chapter Council?

ACS Chapter Guidebook (Chapter Council):

“Representative young surgeons should also be included in the Chapter Council, including an ACS Young Fellows Association representative (YFA) and a Resident and Associate Society (RAS) representative.”
Why have a YFA Member on the Chapter Council?

1. To ensure young surgeon representation in chapter activities and committees.
2. To encourage new membership within the chapter, to retain existing members, and to ensure a pipeline of new leadership in the years ahead.
3. To encourage the distribution of information among the younger membership.
4. To encourage an esprit de corps among the younger members.
5. To serve as a resource for residents and medical students who seek a career in surgery.
