Please summarize the achievements upon which the nomination is based:

Edward D. Churchill Lecture Nomination Criteria

Rules & Eligibility.

The primary consideration is the Nominee's career contribution to the fundamental understanding of surgical knowledge as it relates to the practice of military surgery through his/her research, writing and/or lecturing. The Churchill Lecturer will be selected by the Executive Council during or following the annual ACS Clinical Congress; the decision of the Council is final. The Lectureship will not be awarded in absentia. Nominees need not be Members of the Society, and Nominees of any nationality are eligible. Current Officers of the Society and previous Pryor Lecturers are not eligible.

Nominations.

Nominations for the Edward D. Churchill Lecture will be accepted from any Society Member and may be made for surgeons in all areas of military surgery. Nominations may be submitted in writing in advance of the annual meeting of the Society. Nominations shall include the full name; organization; mailing address; e-mail address; and telephone number for both the Nominee and Nominator. Floor nominations shall be accepted during the annual business meeting. The nominating Member of accepted floor nominations shall submit a written citation for consideration by the Executive Council per the criteria outlined above prior to the end of Clinical Congress.

AMERICAN COLLEGE OF SURGEONS

EXCELSIOR SURGICAL SOCIETY EDWARD D. CHURCHILL LECTURE

This lecture is named for the Excelsior Surgical Society, a group of 80 medical officers who met for the first time in 1945 at the Excelsior Hotel, Rome, Italy. This lecture also honors Colonel Edward D. Churchill, a famous surgeon and consultant to the U.S. Army in the World War II Italian Theater, who presented the first keynote address at this meeting.

The lecture, traditionally presented at the ACS Spring Meeting, was moved to the ACS Clinical Congress in 2008.
