How to Bookmark a Web page

In Google Chrome

1. Open the webpage you want to bookmark.
2. Look for the star icon. It's located on the right side of the address bar.
3. Click the star. The star will turn blue, indicating that the bookmark has been created.
4. Customize the bookmark. You can choose to:
 - a. Edit the name: Rename the bookmark to something more descriptive.
 - b. Choose a folder: Select a folder to organize your bookmarks.
5. Click "Done" to save the bookmark.

Alternatively, you can use the keyboard shortcut Ctrl+D (or Cmd+D on Mac) to quickly access the bookmark creation menu and add a bookmark.
