Fellowship Pledge

Recognizing that the American College of Surgeons seeks to exemplify and develop the highest traditions of our ancient profession, I hereby pledge myself, as a condition of Fellowship in the College, to live in strict accordance with its principles and regulations.

I pledge myself to pursue the practice of surgery with honesty and to place the welfare and the rights of my patient above all else. I promise to deal with each patient as I would wish to be dealt with if I were in my patient's position, and I will set my fees commensurate with the services rendered. I will take no part in any arrangement, such as fee splitting or itinerant surgery, which induces referral or treatment for reason other than the patient's best welfare. Upon my honor, I declare that I will advance my knowledge and skills, will respect my colleagues, and will seek their counsel when in doubt about my own abilities. In turn, I will willingly help my colleagues when requested. Finally, I solemnly pledge myself to cooperate in advancing and extending the art and science of surgery by my Fellowship in the American College of Surgeons.

The President 2001–2002

R. Scott Jones, MD, FACS, a general surgeon from Charlottesville, VA, will be installed this evening as the 82nd President of the American College of Surgeons. Dr. Jones is currently the S. Hurt Watts Professor and Chairman of Surgery at the University of Virginia Health System, Charlottesville.

A native of Tyler, TX, Dr. Jones attended the University of Texas and received his medical degree in 1961 from the University of Texas Medical Branch. He completed an internship in surgery at the University of Texas Medical Branch (1961–1962) and was an assistant resident in surgery at the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania (1962–1967), an assistant instructor in surgery at the University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine (1962–1966), and a fellow in the Harrison Department of Surgical Research at the University of Pennsylvania (1962–1967). After serving as a basic science trainee in the Department of Physiology in the School of Medicine at the University of Pennsylvania (1964–1965), Dr. Jones served as chief resident in surgery, instructor in surgery, and as an American Cancer Society Clinical Fellow at the University of Pennsylvania (1966–1967). He subsequently headed west to complete a fellowship in gastroenterology in the Departments of Medicine and Physiology at the University of California, Los Angeles, in 1967. He then served as a research associate (1967–1968), a clinical investigator (1968–1971), and a medical investigator (1971) at the Veterans Administration Hospital in San Francisco. In addition, Dr. Jones served as an assistant professor of surgery at the University of California, San Francisco, from 1968 to 1971.

Dr. Jones continued his surgical career at Duke University Medical Center, Durham, NC, where he served as associate professor of surgery (1971–1977) and professor of surgery (1977–1981). He also served as assistant chief of surgery at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Durham from 1971 to 1981. He has held his current position as the S. Hurt Watts Professor and Chairman of Surgery in the Department of Surgery at the University of Virginia Health System since 1982.

Dr. Jones became a Fellow of the American College of Surgeons in 1975, and since that time he has been an active participant and leader in numerous College activities. He was a member of the College's Committee for the Forum on Fundamental Surgical Problems (1979–1984) and served as Chair of that committee (1983–1984). Dr. Jones also served as Chair of the Medical Motion Pictures Committee (1986–1987) and Vice-Chair of the College's Program Committee (1989–1991). He served a two-term membership on the College's Board of Governors (1991–1997) and as a member (1991), Vice-Chair (1992–1994), and Chair (1994–1997) of the College's Advisory Council for Surgery. Dr. Jones also served as Chair of the College's Nominating Committee of the Fellows in 1998. Since 1991, he has been an active member of the Committee on Applicants and the Virginia Chapter's Membership Committee.

Dr. Jones has been awarded memberships and has held leadership positions in numerous surgical organizations and societies. He was president (1984) and chairman of the Board of Trustees (1985–1986) of the Society for Surgery of the Alimentary Tract; treasurer and a member of the Board of Trustees of the American Surgical Association (1995–2000); president of the Southern Surgical Association (1992); and president of the Halsted Society (1996). He has also served as director of the American Board of Surgery (1984–1990) and director of the American Board of Emergency Medicine (1988–1990), served on the National Institutes of Health Study Section, and was chair of (1995–1997) and held membership on (1990–1997) the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education and the Residency Review Committee for Surgery.

Throughout his distinguished career, Dr. Jones has been awarded numerous honors, including membership in Alpha Omega Alpha and the Society of Sigma Xi, and honorary membership in the Singleton Surgical Society, the Texas Surgical Association, and the Muller Surgical Society. He has received the Joseph B. Kass Award for Research, the Ashbel Smith Distinguished Alumnus Award at the University of Texas Medical Branch, and the Distinguished Alumnus Award from Duke University Medical Center.

Over the course of his career, Dr. Jones has demonstrated a strong commitment to disseminating surgical knowledge. He has authored or coauthored more than 160 articles in a wide range of medical and surgical journals and has served on the editorial boards of the Journal of the American College of Surgeons, the Journal of Surgical Research, Viewpoints on Digestive Diseases, the Journal of Digestive Diseases and Sciences, Annals of Surgery, Surgical Gastroenterology, the Journal of Gastrointestinal Surgery, American Surgeon, and Digestive Surgery.

Dr. Jones currently resides in North Garden, VA, with his wife Carol.
