Fellowship Pledge

Recognizing that the American College of Surgeons seeks to exemplify and develop the highest traditions of our ancient profession, I hereby pledge myself, as a condition of Fellowship in the College, to live in strict accordance with its principles and regulations.

I pledge myself to pursue the practice of surgery with honesty and to place the welfare and the rights of my patient above all else. I promise to deal with each patient as I would wish to be dealt with if I were in the patient's position, and I will set my fees commensurate with the services rendered. I will take no part in any arrangement, such as fee splitting or itinerant surgery, which induces referral or treatment for reasons other than the patient's best welfare.

Upon my honor, I declare that I will advance my knowledge and skills, will respect my colleagues, and will seek their counsel when in doubt about my own abilities. In turn, I will willingly help my colleagues when requested.

Finally, I solemnly pledge myself to cooperate in advancing and extending the art and science of surgery by my Fellowship in the American College of Surgeons.

The President 1997–1998

Seymour I. Schwartz, MD, FACS, a general surgeon from Rochester, NY, will be installed this evening as the 78th President of the American College of Surgeons. Dr. Schwartz, who is currently Editor-in-Chief of the Journal of the American College of Surgeons, and Immediate-Past Chair of the College's Board of Regents, is the Distinguished Alumni Professor and Chair of the Department of Surgery at the University of Rochester, Rochester, NY.

Dr. Schwartz, a native of New York City, received a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Wisconsin in 1947, and he earned a medical doctorate from New York University College of Medicine in 1950. Dr. Schwartz was also a research fellow in pathology at the University of Wisconsin in 1949.

Dr. Schwartz served as a resident in surgery at the University of Rochester, Strong Memorial Hospital, from 1950 to 1957, taking a leave of absence from 1952 to 1954 in service to his country as a Lieutenant, Jr. Grade, in the United States Navy. Upon completing his residency in 1957, Dr. Schwartz became an instructor in surgery at the University of Rochester, Strong Memorial Hospital. He was named a Diplomate by the American Board of Surgery in 1958 and by the American Board of Thoracic Surgery in 1960. Dr. Schwartz became a senior instructor in surgery at the University of Rochester, Strong Memorial Hospital, in 1958, and he was appointed assistant professor of surgery at the same institution in 1959. He was named a Markle Scholar in Academic Medicine in 1960. Dr. Schwartz served as director of surgical research at the University of Rochester, Strong Memorial Hospital, from 1962 to 1982. He became associate professor of surgery at the institution in 1963, and he has served as professor of surgery there since 1967. Dr. Schwartz assumed his current position as chair of the department of surgery in 1987, and he was named Distinguished Alumni Professor and chair of the department of surgery at the University of Rochester in 1995.

Dr. Schwartz became a Fellow of the American College of Surgeons in 1959. Since that time, he has faithfully served the College in diverse capacities. He is currently Editor-in-Chief of the Journal of the American College of Surgeons, and he is Immediate-Past Chair of the Board of Regents. Dr. Schwartz also served as President of the College's Upstate New York Chapter (1986), Chair of the Committee for the Forum on Fundamental Surgical Problems (1986), Chair of the Committee on Surgical Education in Medical Schools (1988), Chair of the Program Committee (1992 to 1995), member of the Board of Governors (1982 to 1988), member of the Board of Regents (1988 to 1997), and member of the Advisory Council for Surgery (1988 to the present). He served as Vice-Chair of the Board of Regents (1993 to 1994) and as Chair of the Board of Regents (1994 to 1997).

In 1986, Dr. Schwartz received the College's Distinguished Service Award, the College's highest honor. In presenting Dr. Schwartz with this award, the College cited "his dedication to medical education and research...complemented by unnumbered lectureships and professorships throughout the world..." a citation that accurately reflects the national and international scope of Dr. Schwartz's commitment to disseminating his medical knowledge. Throughout his distinguished career, Dr. Schwartz has held more than 100 visiting lectureships and professorships across the nation and abroad, including appointments at Cornell University and the Mayo Clinic in the United States, the Royal Free Hospital in London, the University of Lund in Sweden, the Royal College of Surgeons in Edinburgh, and the University of Paris.

Dr. Schwartz has been awarded memberships in numerous academic, regional, national, and international medical associations and societies, and he has held leadership positions for many of these groups. He has been the president of the American Surgical Association (1993 to 1994), the Central Surgical Association (1981 to 1982), and the Society for Clinical Surgery (1985). Dr. Schwartz has also served the American Board of Surgery as a member (1973 to 1979) and as vice-chair (1977 to 1979). In addition to his professional activities, Dr. Schwartz has offered his services to other agencies. He was a national consultant in surgery to the United States Air Force (1968 to 1977), he served in a surgery study section of the National Institutes of Health (1974 to 1978), and he was a member of the board of directors for the Monroe County (NY) American Red Cross (1981 to 1986). A prolific writer who has contributed immeasurable knowledge to the field of surgical education, Dr. Schwartz has written on a variety of topics, including hepatology, hematology, physiology, and tropical diseases. He has served on the editorial boards of several medical journals, including the Journal of Surgical Research (associate editor from 1971 to 1977), the Review of Surgery (associate editor from 1971 to present), Contemporary Surgery (editor-in-chief from 1973 to present), Journal of the American College of Surgeons (editorial board from 1983 to present and as editor-in-chief from 1996 to present), World Journal of Surgery (editorial board from 1979 to present), and Journal of the History of Medicine and Allied Sciences (1991 to present). He has authored and coauthored more than 200 scientific and medical publications, including serving as editor-in-chief for published textbooks, such as Principles of Surgery, Tropical Surgery, Yearbook of Surgery, Abdominal Operations, and Surgical Pre-Test.

Throughout his notable career, Dr. Schwartz has received many service awards, including the Sesquicentennial Medal from the University of South Carolina in 1974; the Acril Medal from the Swedish Surgical Association in 1975; the Honoris Causa from the University of Lund, Sweden, in 1989; and the Albert David Kaiser Medal from the Rochester Academy of Medicine in 1992. He was named the Dean's Senior Teaching Scholar from the University of Rochester in 1996. Dr. Schwartz received the Doctor Honoris Causa Universidad Complutense from the University of Madrid in May 1997.

He holds honorary memberships in numerous surgical societies, including the Brazilian College of Surgeons, the Mexican Association of General Surgery, the Colombian Society of Surgery, the Ecuadorian Surgical Society, the Association of Surgeons of West Africa, and the Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh.

His passionate interest in the history of cartography has led Dr. Schwartz to write two books on the subject. He was coauthor of The Mapping of America (1980, New York: Abrams) and The French and Indian War, 1754–1763: The Imperial Struggle for North America (1995, New York: Simon & Schuster). He is also a member of the International Society for History of Cartography, and he recently became a member of the board at the National Museum of American History.

Dr. Schwartz and his wife, Dr. Ruth Schwartz, who is also a Fellow of the American College of Surgeons, reside in Rochester, NY.
Seymour I. Schwartz, MD, FACS, a general surgeon from Rochester, NY, will be installed this evening as the 78th President of the American College of Surgeons. Dr. Schwartz, who is currently Editor-in-Chief of the Journal of the American College of Surgeons, and Immediate-Past Chair of the College's Board of Regents, is the Distinguished Alumni Professor and Chair of the Department of Surgery at the University of Rochester, Rochester, NY.

Dr. Schwartz, a native of New York City, received a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Wisconsin in 1947, and he earned a medical doctorate from New York University College of Medicine in 1950. Dr. Schwartz was also a research fellow in pathology at the University of Wisconsin in 1949.

Dr. Schwartz served as a resident in surgery at the University of Rochester, Strong Memorial Hospital, from 1950 to 1957, taking a leave of absence from 1952 to 1954 in service to his country as a Lieutenant, Jr. Grade, in the United States Navy. Upon completing his residency in 1957, Dr. Schwartz became an instructor in surgery at the University of Rochester, Strong Memorial Hospital. He was named a Diplomate by the American Board of Surgery in 1958 and by the American Board of Thoracic Surgery in 1960. Dr. Schwartz became a senior instructor in surgery at the University of Rochester, Strong Memorial Hospital, in 1958, and he was appointed assistant professor of surgery at the same institution in 1959. He was named a Markle Scholar in Academic Medicine in 1960. Dr. Schwartz served as director of surgical research at the University of Rochester, Strong Memorial Hospital, from 1962 to 1982. He became associate professor of surgery at the institution in 1963, and he has served as professor of surgery there since 1967. Dr. Schwartz assumed his current position as chair of the department of surgery in 1987, and he was named Distinguished Alumni Professor and chair of the department of surgery at the University of Rochester in 1995.

Dr. Schwartz became a Fellow of the American College of Surgeons in 1959. Since that time, he has faithfully served the College in diverse capacities. He is currently Editor-in-Chief of the Journal of the American College of Surgeons, and he is Immediate-Past Chair of the Board of Regents. Dr. Schwartz also served as President of the College's Upstate New York Chapter (1986), Chair of the Committee for the Forum on Fundamental Surgical Problems (1986), Chair of the Committee on Surgical Education in Medical Schools (1988), Chair of the Program Committee (1992 to 1995), member of the Board of Governors (1982 to 1988), member of the Board of Regents (1988 to 1997), and member of the Advisory Council for Surgery (1988 to the present). He served as Vice-Chair of the Board of Regents (1993 to 1994) and as Chair of the Board of Regents (1994 to 1997).

In 1986, Dr. Schwartz received the College's Distinguished Service Award, the College's highest honor. In presenting Dr. Schwartz with this award, the College cited "his dedication to medical education and research...complemented by an unnumbered lecturerships and professorships throughout the world..." a citation that accurately reflects the national and international scope of Dr. Schwartz's commitment to disseminating his medical knowledge.
