ACS QUALITY and SAFETY CONFERENCE

July 19-22, 2019 | Washington, DC

#acsqsc
facs.org/QualitySafetyConference
Welcome

On behalf of the American College of Surgeons (ACS), it is my pleasure to welcome you to the 2019 ACS Quality and Safety Conference (QSC) in our nation’s capital, Washington, DC! The ACS QSC is the premier forum to learn about cutting-edge initiatives and topics in quality and safety in surgery. There are many opportunities to network with other health care professionals who are working on institutional improvements at the local, national, and international levels.

The ACS was founded in 1913 with a mission to improve the care of surgical patients and to safeguard standards of care in an optimal and ethical practice environment. This mission ties in perfectly with the theme of this year’s conference: “Putting Our Patients First.” This conference is specifically designed for anyone who aims for optimal care and outcomes for each and every patient.

Sessions at this year’s conference will include content from the many established ACS Quality Programs—the ACS National Surgical Quality Improvement Program (ACS NSQIP®), Metabolic and Bariatric Surgery Accreditation and Quality Improvement Program (MBSAQIP®), Cancer Programs, Trauma Programs, Children’s Surgery Verification (CSV) Program and ACS NSQIP Pediatric, as well as additional tracks and sessions for those interested in Quality Improvement (QI) principles and tools. Also at the 2019 conference, the Geriatric Surgery Verification (GSV) Quality Improvement Program will be unveiled for the first time.

The conference will include a wide range of important and emerging topics:

- Value Improvement
- Bundled Care
- Global Health
- Change Management
- Leadership Principles
- Team Dynamics
- Strong for Surgery
- Enhanced Recovery
- Emergency General Surgery
- Transplantation

This year’s keynote speaker, Dr. Rana Awdish, an intensive care physician at Henry Ford Hospital, will share her amazing journey from death to recovery. She will share her passion for improving the patient experience and describe lessons learned from being both a physician and a patient. She will specifically reveal how her experience as a patient shaped her approach as a provider.

We will have three evening receptions this year. On Friday night, there will be a series of Quality Program Socials where attendees will have the opportunity to socialize, network, and learn from colleagues participating in the ACS Quality Programs. On Saturday evening, we will host the ACS QSC Welcome Reception at the Washington Nationals Ballpark. Please come dressed casually and represent your favorite sports team as we enjoy the ballpark atmosphere and network over hors d’oeuvres and libations. The Abstract Poster Reception and Networking Event on Sunday evening will feature hundreds of scientific posters and the abstract presenters will share their valuable research and QI projects.

Sharing your experiences and expertise and, most importantly, your efforts in putting your patients first, is what makes the ACS QSC the most exciting part of the year. We come together annually to strive for our shared goal of continuously improving quality, safety, and value in surgery. We hope you will continue to find the conference rewarding, enjoyable, educational, and inspiring!

Clifford Y. Ko, MD, MS, MSHS, FACS, FASCRS
Director, ACS Division of Research and Optimal Patient Care

The deadline for physicians to claim Self-Assessment Credit and Continuing Medical Education (CME) conference evaluation credits is August 2, 2019. For physicians who only want to claim CME conference evaluation credits and forgo the self-assessment activity, the deadline is September 20, 2019. It is important to keep your badge for login purposes. If you lose your badge, please contact the American College of Surgeons Convention and Meetings department at registration@facs.org to obtain your registration ID number.

Program Objectives
This activity is designed for physicians and nurses. The learning objectives upon completion of this course are to:

- PROVIDE a professional forum to discuss and apply the most recent knowledge pertaining to national and local quality initiatives in the field of surgery.
- PRESENT methods used to analyze ACS Quality Programs data and demonstrate practical ways to use the data for quality improvement.
- PROFESS a professional forum to discuss and apply the most recent knowledge pertaining to national and local quality initiatives in the field of surgery.
- PRESENT methods used to analyze ACS Quality Programs data and demonstrate practical ways to use the data for quality improvement.
- ASSIST hospitals and providers in managing, analyzing, and interpreting data by providing education on proven methods that will empower hospitals and centers to make a positive impact at their facilities.
- ENHANCE the learning experience by offering breakout sessions that educate attendees on the topic areas of their choice and with consideration of their level of programmatic experience.

Disclosure Information
In compliance with the ACCME accreditation criteria, the American College of Surgeons must ensure that anyone in a position to control the content of the educational activity has disclosed all relevant financial relationships with any commercial interest. All reported conflicts are managed by a designated official to ensure a bias-free presentation. Please refer to the virtual Tote Bag icon in the mobile app for the complete disclosure list.

Instructions to Claim CME Credit

Step 1: Download the 2019 ACS Quality and Safety Conference mobile app from the App Store or Google Play in order to claim credits. You may also claim credits on the claiming website, facs.org/facsclaimcredits.

Step 2: Log in to the app or claiming website using your e-mail address and registration ID. If you do not know which e-mail address you used to register or you lost your registration ID, please contact the ACS Convention and Meetings department at registration@facs.org to obtain this information.

Step 3: If claiming from the app, select the Claim Credit tile to begin claiming.

Step 4: Select credit type (CME). You may also select Completion Certificate if you will not be claiming credits.

Step 5: Select sessions attended, and then click Start Evaluation next to those sessions to claim credits and complete session evaluations.

Step 6: If claiming Self-Assessment Credits, complete the self-assessment questions.

Step 7: Complete the Global Evaluation.

Step 8: Click Print/Download Certificate to access the certificate chosen.
Instructions to Claim CNE Credit

Step 1
Download the 2019 ACS Quality and Safety Conference mobile app from the App Store or Google Play in order to claim credits. You may also claim credits on the claiming website, facs.org/qscclaimcredits. The link to access the claiming website will be available by clicking on the CME/CNE tab. Be sure to keep your conference badge, as conference participants will be tracked through our conference website, facs.org/qscclaimcredits.

Step 2
Log in to the app or claiming website using your e-mail address and registration ID. If you do not know which e-mail address you used to register your badge, please contact the ACS Convention and Meetings department at registration@facs.org to obtain this information.

Step 3
If claiming from the app, select the Claim Credit tile to begin claiming.

Step 4
Select credit type (CNE). You may also select Certificate of Approval to request a certificate of approval for the activity.

Step 5
Select sessions attended, and then click Start Evaluation next to those sessions to claim credits and complete session evaluations.

Step 6
Complete the Global Evaluation.

Step 7
Click Print/Download Certificate to access the certificate chosen.

Continuing Professional Education

This activity has been approved by the Canadian College of Health Information Management (CCHIM) to offer Continuing Professional Education (CPE) Credit. The 2019 ACS Quality and Safety Conference has been approved to award a maximum of 21.25 CPE Credits per attendee. Please note that not all sessions are approved for CPE Credit. Please refer to the table below, which lists the sessions where CPE Credit is being offered. In order to streamline the process of claiming CPE Credit, this process has been automated through our conference website, facs.org/qscclaimcredits. The link to access the CPE claiming system will be available by clicking on the Continuing Education Information tab. Be sure to keep your conference badge, as conference participants will need their last name (as it appears on their badge) and their registration or badge ID number to log in and claim credits. The deadline to claim CPE Credit is September 20, 2019.

Instructions to Claim CPE Credit

Step 1
Download the 2019 ACS Quality and Safety Conference mobile app from the App Store or Google Play in order to claim credits. You may also claim credits on the claiming website, facs.org/qscclaimcredits.

Step 2
Log in to the app or claiming website using your e-mail address and registration ID. If you do not know which e-mail address you used to register or you lost your registration ID, please contact the ACS Convention and Meetings department at registration@facs.org to obtain this information.

Step 3
If claiming from the app, select the Claim Credit tile to begin claiming.

Step 4
Select credit type (CPE). You may also select Certificate of Attendance if you will not be claiming credits.

Step 5
Select sessions attended, and then click Start Evaluation next to those sessions to claim credits and complete session evaluations.

Step 6
Complete the Global Evaluation.

Step 7
Click Print/Download Certificate to access the certificate chosen.

Continuing Professional Education (CPE) Credits are being offered for the following sessions:

- P01 Geriatric Surgery Verification Program Launch: How to Become a Geriatric Surgery Verified Center

Social and Networking Events

Quality Program Socials

Friday, July 19 | 5:00–6:30 pm | Marriott Marquis, Meeting Level 4
Attendees are encouraged to join their fellow program colleagues for an evening of networking, refreshments, and light appetizers. This event is an opportunity to meet fellow peers who are working within the same quality program and network across quality programs. The programs below will have social events.

- American College of Surgeons National Surgical Quality Improvement Program (ACS NSQIP)*
- Children’s Surgery Verification (CSV) Program/ACS NSQIP Pediatric
- Metabolic and Bariatric Surgery Accreditation and Quality Improvement Program (MBSAQIP)
- Cancer Quality Programs

* Those interested in ACS NSQIP Adult, Geriatric Surgery Verification, Trauma Programs, and the Surgeon Specific Registry are encouraged to attend the ACS NSQIP Social.

Welcome Reception

Saturday, July 20 | 6:30–8:30 pm | Nationals Park, 1500 S. Capitol St. SE Washington, DC 20003
This year, the reception will take place at Nationals Park, Washington, DC’s MLB ballpark. Conference attendees will be able to explore a variety of areas of the ballpark while having the opportunity to relax, interact, and enjoy ballpark fare and libations. Complimentary shuttle transportation will be provided from each of the four conference hotels beginning at approximately 6:00 pm. Guests are welcome to attend for an additional fee of $125. Attendees must register prior to attending the event. Backpacks may not be brought into Nationals Park, except as otherwise stated in the Nationals Bag Policy. Please visit the Quality and Safety Conference website for additional information.

Abstract Poster Reception and Networking Event

Sunday, July 21 | 5:30–7:30 pm | East and West Salons, Level 1, Convention Center
During the Abstract Poster Reception and Networking Event, attendees will view hundreds of abstract posters, interact with the primary authors, and ask questions about their work. This dedicated time serves as a great networking opportunity. Attendees will be encouraged to vote for the best poster, and by voting they will be automatically entered into a raffle. The primary author of the poster with the most votes and the raffle winner will be announced during the final general session Monday morning, July 22.
