Fellowship Pledge

Recognizing that the American College of Surgeons seeks to exemplify and develop the highest traditions of our ancient profession, I hereby pledge myself, as a condition of Fellowship in the College, to live in strict accordance with its principles and regulations.

I pledge myself to pursue the practice of surgery with honesty and to place the welfare and the rights of my patient above all else. I promise to deal with each patient as I would wish to be dealt with if I were in the patient's position, and I will set my fees commensurate with the services rendered. I will take no part in any arrangement, such as fee splitting or itinerant surgery, which induces referral or treatment for reason other than the patient's best welfare.

Upon my honor, I declare that I will advance my knowledge and skills, will respect my colleagues, and will seek their counsel when in doubt about my own abilities. In turn, I will willingly help my colleagues when requested.

Finally, I solemnly pledge myself to cooperate in advancing and extending the art and science of surgery by my Fellowship in the American College of Surgeons.

The President 1995-1996

LaSalle D. Leffall, Jr., MD, FACS, of Washington, DC, will be installed this evening as the 76th President of the American College of Surgeons. A general surgeon and surgical oncologist, Dr. Leffall is a professor and chairman at Howard University College of Medicine. He also holds the title of Charles R. Drew Professor at Howard University.

Dr. Leffall was born on May 22, 1930, in Tallahassee, FL, but grew up in nearby Quincy and attended its public schools. In 1948, at the age of 18, he was awarded a BS degree with greatest distinction (summa cum laude) from Florida A&M University.

Four years later, Dr. Leffall earned a medical degree from the Howard University College of Medicine, Washington, DC, where he ranked first in his class. He served an internship at Homer G. Phillips Hospital, St. Louis, MO, from 1952 to 1953. Dr. Leffall served as assistant resident in surgery at Freedmen's Hospital,

Washington, DC, from 1953 to 1954, at DC General Hospital from 1954 to 1955, and at Freedmen's Hospital, Washington, DC, from 1955 to 1956. Serving as chief resident in surgery at Freedmen's Hospital, Washington, DC, from 1956 to 1957, he then took a senior fellowship in cancer surgery at Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center, New York, NY, from 1957 to 1959.

Following the completion of his medical education, Dr. Leffall began his military career at the rank of Captain, MC, serving as Chief of General Surgery at the US Army Hospital in Munich, Germany, from 1960 to 1961. In 1962, Dr. Leffall joined the faculty of Howard University, where, in 1970, he assumed his current position as professor and chairman of the department of surgery. In 1992, Dr. Leffall was named the Charles R. Drew Professor, occupying the first endowed chair in the Department of Surgery at Howard University. Now in his 34th year on the faculty, he has taught approximately 3,500 students and helped train almost 200 general surgical residents.

Since becoming a Fellow of the American College of Surgeons in 1964, Dr. Leffall has served the College in various capacities. He served as president of the Washington Metropolitan Chapter, 1978–79; College secretary, 1983–92; vice-chairman of the Executive Committee, Committee on Medical Motion Pictures, 1983–84; member of the Commission on Cancer, 1971–81; member of the Communications Committee, 1983–87; a member of the Education Committee, 1983–87; and a member of the Development Committee, 1993–1995. He has been a vital contributor to the College's scientific meeting programs, serving as chairman of the Postgraduate Course on Gastrointestinal Diseases (1984 Clinical Congress); Ethics and Philosophy Lecturer (1993 Clinical Congress); and Excelsior Surgical Society/Edward D. Churchill Lecturer (1994 Spring Meeting).

In addition, Dr. Leffall has been awarded membership in numerous academic, regional, national, and international medical associations and societies, and he has held leadership positions with many of these groups. He was president of the American Cancer Society (1978–79), the Society of Surgical Oncology (1978–79), the Society of Surgical Chairmen (1988–90); the Washington Academy of Surgery (1981–82); president-elect of the Society of Black Academic Surgeons (1995); vice-president of the Society for Surgery of the Alimentary Tract (1989–90); and second vice-president of the American Surgical Association (1989–90). He received a presidential appointment to the National Cancer Advisory Board (1980–86). From 1981–87, he was a member of the American Board of Surgery. As the principal Civilian Consultant to the General Surgery Service and the Department of Surgery for 25 years (1970–95), he received the Commander's Award for Public Service from Walter Reed Army Medical Center in 1995. He was made an Honorary Fellow of the West African College of Surgeons in 1994 and of the International College of Surgeons in 1995. He is to be inducted as an Honorary Fellow of the College of Surgeons of South Africa in 1996. Dr. Leffall has served on the editorial boards of several medical journals including the Journal of the National Medical Association, Cancer, the American Journal of Surgery, and the Archives of Surgery, in addition to authoring and coauthoring more than 120 scientific and medical publications.

Throughout his distinguished career, Dr. Leffall, who has devoted his professional life to the study of cancer, especially as it relates to African-Americans, has held visiting professorships and lectureships at more than 200 medical institutions in the United States and abroad. Dr. Leffall has been awarded honorary memberships from the Bolivian, Peruvian, and Chilean Cancer Societies, and he has also been awarded honorary degrees from Georgetown University, the University of Maryland, Florida A&M University, Meharry Medical College, Morehouse School of Medicine, Clark University and Howard University.

In 1987, an award—the Biennial LaSalle D. Leffall, Jr. Award—was established by the M.D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute, Houston, TX, recognizing Dr. Leffall's contributions to cancer prevention, treatment, and education in minority and economically disadvantaged communities. In 1989, the citizens of his home town Quincy (FL) named two streets and the surgical wing in the Gadsden Memorial Hospital in his honor. The LaSalle D. Leffall, Jr., Surgical Society was formed in March 1995, and the Leffall Chair in Surgery—the second endowed chair in the Department of Surgery at Howard University—will be established in March 1996.

Dr. Leffall and his wife Ruth have a son, LaSalle III, an honors graduate of Harvard Law and Business Schools, who is an associate at the New York law firm of Cravath, Swaine & Moore.
